Susan Sprague Yeske FOOD NOTES

Students will show off their culinary talents and celebrate the foods of their city tomorrow when Trenton Central High School holds its annual Taste of Trenton.

Work by students in the TCHS Hotel, Restaurant and Tourism Academy will be on display while local chefs give culinary demonstrations, students will sell tickets for a dinner created by the school's Galloping Gourmet Club, and a best dessert contest will be featured during the event from 5:30-9 p.m. Desserts will be free for sampling.

This year's theme is, "Making What it Takes for 75 Years," a celebration of the 75th anniversary of the construction of the high school.

Taste of Trenton will take place in the cafeteria of the Chambers Street high school. Admission is free and it is open to the public.

A sweet effort for moms

Moms traditionally get presents on Mother's Day, but some moms need a helping hand as well. Those are the moms who will be helped by sales this week of small hearts filled with coffee candies that are for sale at the three McCaffrey's Supermarkets in the area.

Caffe Acapella Tasting Hearts are for sale for $1 a box as part of "Coffee Lovers Care," the company's program to benefit Project Rainbow, a transitional Philadelphia housing program for homeless women and their children.

Caffe Acapella will donate 100 percent of the proceeds from the sale of the cappuccino-flavored hearts to the program, which is part of the Holy Redeemer Health System (www.holyredeemer.com).

Acapella Gourmet Foods of Berwyn, Pa., produces Caffe Acapella, the world's first gourmet coffee you can eat, a sweet indulgence made from fresh roasted coffee beans. Other Acapella products also are for sale at the stores in Princeton Township, East Windsor and Yardley, Pa. (www.acapellafoods.com)

Meals for moms

French toast with chocolate and sundried cherries, chilled shrimp with citrus and salsa, grilled tuna steak, roast leg of lamb and poached asparagus with vinaigrette and mixed greens all are on the menu for Mother's Day Sunday at Hamilton's Grill Room.

The Lambertville restaurant will serve a Mother's Day menu from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. featuring a three-course prix-fixe
